

OBITUARIES & IN MEMORIAM

WILSON, MARVIN

posted 6 days ago September 16th, 2015. Updated 6 days ago

Print Font Size:

WILSON, MARVIN

WILSON, Marvin Hunter Sr., 84, of Chesterfield, completed his bucket list in Sandbridge, Va., and then passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 13, 2015. He is survived by his loving wife of 17 years, Phyllis Wilson; and the mother of his sons, Grace Wilson; sons, Marvin H. Wilson Jr. (Kathy) and Larry W. Wilson. He is also survived by his stepsons, Joseph B. Allred and Benjamin T. Allred (Marie). PaPa also leaves a legacy of four grandchildren, Teresa, Keith, Karen and Olivia; and three great-grandchildren, Meranda, Dylan and Shane. Uncle Skits will also be remembered by many nieces and nephews. Marvin was a fan of any sport in which a score was kept. He loved his bluegrass music, always kept up with current events, toured extensively in his beloved motor home and was an amazing judge of character. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, September 18, 2015, at Morrissett Funeral and Cremation Service, 6500 Ironbridge Rd. (Rt. 10), where his funeral service will be held at 12 noon on Saturday. Interment will follow in Dale Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, please make memorial contributions to the American Heart Association, 4217 Park Place Ct., Glen Allen, Va. 23060.