

HAHN, Betty Sue C., ol

Jan 31, 2014 2:02 am EST

Chesterfield, Va., passed away early Saturday morning, January 4, 2014. She was the first child of Abraham Clay Cole and Olive Ray Davis. She was born in Elizabethton, Tenn. on January 9, 1933. Thursday would have been her 81st birthday. Betty retired from Chesterfield County after over 27 years of service as a teacher, most of those years as a Kindergarten teacher at Chalkely Elementary. She was a graduate of East Tennessee State University, where she received her teaching degree. She also received her librarian certification from Virginia Commonwealth University. She loved to travel and spent many days at the Outer Banks with family and friends, as well as traveling overseas. She was very devoted to family and loved family functions especially with the grandchildren. Betty is survived by her sons, William C. Hahn of Chester, Va., Jeffrey D. Hahn of Midlothian, Va.; one sibling, Dr. Douglas R. Cole of Elizabethton, Tenn.; and her grandchildren, Emilia Hahn, Jacob Hahn and Cara Hahn. She was preceded in death by her parents, Abraham Clay Cole "A.C." and Olive Cole "Granny"; as well as her granddaughters, Kassidy Renee Hahn and Diana Hahn. Betty had many cousins, several aunts and uncles; and two special nieces, Kelly Walter and Emmy Morganstern. The family will receive friends Thursday from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the Huguenot Chapel, Woody Funeral Home, 1020 Huguenot Rd. A memorial service will be held at 6:30 p.m. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, send contributions to the American Cancer Society. Online condolences may be made at www.woodyfuneralhome.com.
